

Transforming Education in Rhode Island

The Race to the Top Opportunity

South Kingstown Race to the Top Implementation Update: School Year 2012-2013 (Year 3)

The Annual Stocktaking provides both the state and the Local Education Agency (LEA) with an opportunity to review LEA accomplishments and challenges over the course of the Race to the Top (RTT) grant implementation period (i.e., from September 2010 to date). In this summary, RIDE has included relevant LEA-reported data as well as other evidence sources (e.g., training participation) for the purposes of reviewing programmatic successes. The contents of this report were developed under a Race to the Top grant from the U.S. Department of Education. However, those contents do not necessarily represent the policy of the U.S. Department of Education, and you should not assume endorsement by the Federal Government.

This report also includes areas that LEAs self-identified as challenges in their ability to meet Race to the Top commitments. Additionally, Appendix A provides a summary of LEA progress against the student achievement targets set at the start of the grant.

LEA Self-Assessment of Year Three Performance

The table below shows South Kingstown self-reported status against the Year 3 Race to the Top projects. During Year 3, South Kingstown has fully participated in the following projects: Model Curriculum and Intensive Curriculum Alignment, Interim Assessments, Data Use professional development, Educator Evaluation, and New Teacher Induction.

In addition, South Kingstown has begun planning for expansion of these initiatives in Year 4 as well as the implementation of the Formative Assessment professional development modules.

CURRICULUM ALIGNMENT				FORMATIVE ASSESSMENT PD				INTERIM ASSESSMENTS				INSTRUCTIONAL MANAGEMENT SYSTEM				DATA USE PD				EDUCATOR EVALUATION				NEW TEACHER INDUCTION

ON-TRACK	The majority of tasks from the prior quarter are complete, and tasks from the current quarter are on-track to be completed.
DELAYED	Some tasks from the prior quarter are complete, but others have yet to be completed, and/or the district may have difficulty completing the current tasks in the anticipated time frame.
OFF TRACK	The majority of tasks anticipated to date have not been completed and/or the LEA is having significant challenges with some tasks.
NOT APPLICABLE	The district elected not to participate in this project during the 2012-2013 school year.

Summary of Performance Management Participation

As you know, participation in the Collaborative Learning for Outcomes (CLO) process and the submission of the corresponding quarterly progress report is our method for monitoring LEA progress against implementing RTT. More importantly, though, we believe that quality implementation of RTT is best supported through peer-to-peer sharing and that the CLO meetings provide LEAs with an opportunity to gain insights on how to address specific challenges of capacity and practice.

During the 2012-2013 year, South Kingstown met the bar for participation in all four quarterly CLO meetings. All quarterly progress reports were submitted on time, and South Kingstown sent consistent participants to the quarterly meetings, representing appropriate levels of LEA leadership. The team consistently enriched the CLO discussions by sharing their experiences, learnings, questions, and concerns with the group.

In the upcoming year, we are looking forward to continuing our meaningful conversations around the implementation accomplishments and challenges faced by each LEA, as well as discussing how LEAs are building the necessary capacity to sustain this work beyond Race to the Top. With that in mind, we would encourage you to continue sharing the tools and strategies you are using in your district and have made suggestions in this report regarding areas that we would appreciate hearing about in greater detail from you and other LEA leaders.

System of Support 1: Standards and Curriculum

Based on the quarterly progress reports submitted by South Kingstown, as well as participation in additional applicable activities through the end of the 2012-2013 school year, we have assessed the district as 'on track (green),' 'delayed (yellow),' 'off track/at risk (red)', or 'not applicable (grey)' on each of the Year 3 System of Support 1 scope of work tasks for Race to the Top. This assessment is reflected in the table below. Please note that further description of these statuses can be found on page one of this report.

RIDE would like to commend South Kingstown on its efforts to expand and deepen educator and administrator knowledge of the Common Core State Standards (CCSS). The district's math coach worked with all educators to assist with lesson writing, and educators at all levels participated in supplemental professional development on key instructional shifts (e.g., text complexity, academic vocabulary, and text-dependent questioning).

South Kingstown has made significant progress against implementing a guaranteed and viable curriculum aligned to the new Common Core State Standards. During the 2012-2013 school year, South Kingstown implemented an aligned mathematics curriculum in grades K, 2, 4, 6-9 and an aligned ELA curriculum in grades K, 2, 4, 6-9. The district also continued their work in partnership with the Dana Center, RIDE, and the SORICO curriculum writing cohort. To assist with the next iteration of this work, RIDE awarded the curriculum cohort supplemental grant funding to create assessments aligned with the units of study.

Looking ahead, we are excited to hearing more about the ways in which South Kingstown has integrated the many initiatives in support of their transition to a common core aligned curriculum.

Please note: the 'x' in the above table represents the anticipated completion timeline set by RIDE, not when the district completed the task.*

System of Support 2: Instructional Improvement Systems

During the 2012-2013 school year, South Kingstown chose to implement three of the four Race to the Top projects in System of Support 2 (the Instructional Management System, Data Use professional development, and the Interim Assessments). Based on the quarterly progress reports submitted by South Kingstown, as well as participation in additional applicable activities through the end of the 2012-2013 school year, we have assessed the district on each of the Year 3 scope of work tasks for those applicable projects.

During the 2012-2013 school year, South Kingstown did not implement the Formative Assessment online professional development modules. In preparation for implementation in the 2013-2014 school year, South Kingstown has met with RIDE to determine potential implementation options.

South Kingstown also implemented the fixed-form Interim Assessments during the 2012-2013 school year. The district chose to pilot the assessments electronically in a few classrooms per grade level. At the elementary level, they chose to implement the same assessment content that mirrored the roll out of the CCSS-aligned curriculum. All other grade levels implemented both ELA and math. Looking ahead, the district will use the information gleaned from the pilot to project out the technological and training needs for full implementation in the 2013-2014 school year. South Kingstown also noted that they are looking to create end of course summative assessments using the test construction tool.

In addition to configuring the Instructional Management System (IMS), South Kingstown educators used the system to access and administer the Interim Assessments. As of July 2013, the district had not used the IMS for the curriculum or RtI platforms.

During the 2012-2013 school year, all schools from South Kingstown participated in the Data Use professional development series. In the QPU reports, the district expressed that the teams found this training helpful, and that the district has made strong connections between their RtI process and the cycle of inquiry. They also noted that it was beneficial to train the elementary level common planning time facilitators, as well as the middle-school level curriculum coordinators, in the process and protocols.

In the upcoming CLO sessions, we look forward to hearing about the South Kingstown's plans for implementing new initiatives, or deepening engagement in initiatives implemented during the 2012-2013 school year. Additionally, looking ahead towards the PARCC assessment, we hope to hear more from districts about how these initiatives are supporting their transition to the common core.

System of Support 3: Educator Effectiveness

During the 2012-2013 school year, South Kingstown fully implemented all components of System of Support 3 - the Rhode Island model for teacher and building administrator evaluations; and final effectiveness ratings for all teachers and building administrators have been submitted to RIDE using the Educator Performance and Support System. Based on the quarterly progress reports submitted by South Kingstown, as well as participation in additional applicable activities through the end of the 2012-2013 school year, we have assessed the district on each of the Year 3 scope of work tasks for Educator Evaluation.

All South Kingstown evaluators participated in required training activities during the 2012-2013 school year. Additionally, evaluators have registered/attended training as needed in preparation for the upcoming school year.

To support the educator evaluation implementation process, South Kingstown utilized their Intermediary Service Provider (ISP) to assist in calibration within and across neighboring districts. With the help of the FFTES and FFTPS tools, teachers and evaluators are developing a common understanding of the rubrics for professional practice. In their quarterly progress update, the district noted that participation in calibration exercises has helped build consistency across the district and aided in the robust implementation of the evaluation model.

RIDE is pleased to note that, despite initial challenges with data submission, South Kingstown was able to utilize the Educator Performance and Support System (EPSS) to streamline the evaluation process.

In their quarterly progress update report, South Kingstown indicated that the district used 2011-2012 data to assist with professional development planning in the 2012-2013 school year. Looking ahead, RIDE is excited to hear more about how that has been carried out in the district. As we enter into the final year of the Race to the Top grant, we encourage South Kingstown to continue to engage their CLO peers in thinking about continuous support for evaluation implementation, as well as how evaluation data is being used to identify professional development needs.

System of Support 4: Human Capital Development

Based on the quarterly progress reports submitted by South Kingstown, as well as participation in additional applicable activities through the end of the 2012-2013 school year, we have assessed the district on each of the Year 3 scope of work tasks for Beginning Teacher Induction. Additionally, South Kingstown has continued their utilization of SchoolSpring for recruitment of staff on an as needed basis.

South Kingstown reported in quarterly CLO meetings that their teachers have found the induction coaches to be helpful. The district also raised concerns about the sustainability of the program, given the lack of local funding available for a comparable program. We appreciate that the district has been a thoughtful partner in our continued efforts to think through a solution to sustaining this initiative and hope that the conversations will continue in the upcoming school year.

In the upcoming CLO sessions, RIDE looks forward to engaging in a deeper conversation around the revisions that South Kingstown and other LEAs have made to their hiring policies, timelines, and processes in order to support broader human capital initiatives including recruitment of highly qualified and diverse candidates and providing data-driven induction support to beginning teachers.

Appendix A: Overall District Goals and Performance Measures

The table below contains each district's previously established performance measures. These measures provide the state and district with a baseline from which to monitor progress, be held accountable, and recognize success as we advance toward our goals. Please note: The RTT accountability goals set below are separate and performance against those goals does not have an impact on the state-wide accountability system. Additionally, since setting the goals, the US Department of Education has requested that the state revise its goals on college enrollment and college course completion. Therefore, at this time, we have not updated your progress towards these post-secondary goals. Each district has an opportunity to review their current data and revise the goals to better align with the state goals on these measures.
