- 12 Describe three steps needed to get oranges ready to be turned into juice. Use details from the passage.

Oranges need to be ripe to be picked. They cannot ripen once they are picked. Pickers put the oranges into a bag. The bag is emptied into a tub and the tub is emptied into a bin on a truck. They are taken to a juice processing plant, and the truck goes up a ramp. The oranges are then dumped down a chute.

- 12 Describe three steps needed to get oranges ready to be turned into juice. Use details from the passage.

At the orange juice plant drivers steer the truck onto the ramp. In the plant the oranges go onto a conveyor belt. The oranges go through the wash and rinse machine.
