Early Release Roster (PDF)

RICAS Early Roster files are PDFs that contain a roster with item level data for each student. This PDF allows for easy access to the number of points each student scored in conventions and idea development for each essay.

This information is necessary to utilize the Released Essay PDFs and accurately analyze responses based on the student's specific rubric score and not the total score as reported on the released essay response). Data in this file cannot be converted to scale scores and achievement levels.

Remember that all data is embargoed until publicly released and results should be used for educational planning purposes within the school ONLY. Do not share results outside your school.

Test Mode: Blank = Has Not Been Scored
O = Online CV = Convention Score
P = Paper ID = Idea Development Score

† The Language reporting category includes the convention scores.
 ‡ The Writing reporting category is based on the idea development score:
 Essay item raw scores include points from both language and writing.

Released Essay/Constructed Response PDF

RICAS Released Essay/Constructed Response PDFs contain each student's response from the released ELA essay or constructed response/ released math constructed response item(s).

This PDF provides access to both the student's response and score for analysis purposes. When utilizing the ELA Released Essays, make note that the total item score reported consists of both the conventions and idea development score. To analyze responses based on a specific rubric score, the Early Release PDF will need to be referenced for the specific number of points students earned in each area.

English Language Arts - Spring 2025

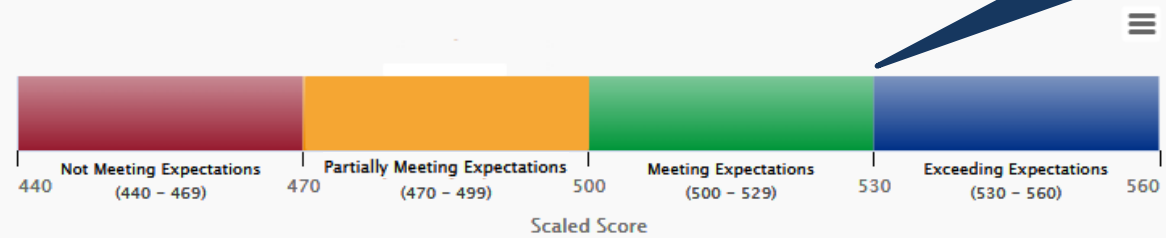

This report provides your child's results from the 2025 Rhode Island Comprehensive Assessment System (RICAS) tests in English Language Arts (reading and writing) and mathematics.

Information from the RICAS, in combination with other academic and social measures, will help educators assess grade level placement, design specialized instruction, set learning goals, and monitor progress. These tests will allow schools, districts, and RIDE to identify where we need to take action to improve teaching and learning.
