Test Taker Information

A paper-based format for taking a digital SAT was approved by College Board for the following student:

Student First Name: _____

Student Last Name: _____

Student Registration Number: _____ (from sign-in ticket)

School Code: _____ School Name: _____

Test Book Form Code: _____ Test: SAT

Staff Signatures

The testing staff administering the test and assisting in the transcription of student responses into Bluebook must signify their agreement with the statement below by completing this section. In the Job Title field, testing staff should indicate their positions at the school (teacher, counselor, etc.).

I verify that the procedures for taking the digital test in a paper-based format were followed, as specified in the SAT Suite Proctor Manual and the Paper Testing Script. I verify that the student responses represent an authentic student assessment.

Test Coordinator Name: _____ Job Title: _____

Test Coordinator Signature: _____ Date: _____

Student Starts Here

Before you take the SAT on paper, you'll need to complete some information in this booklet. Please write your name, registration number (from your sign-in ticket), and school information on the front of this booklet.

IMPORTANT: When you have finished, put your pencil down and look up at the proctor for instructions.

About This Document

This document will walk you through the same check-in process that students see in Bluebook when testing digitally. Please read the full document. It's OK if you see information about products and services that do not apply to your test. Acknowledge your agreement and understanding where requested so that the testing staff member who transcribes your responses can enter these responses in Bluebook.

Complete Your Info

Before the test begins, your proctor will provide instructions to use this document to:

- Allow you time to review and then agree to the Privacy Policy and Use of This App.
- Allow you time to review and then agree to the Testing Rules.
- Allow you time to review the College Board Privacy Statement.
- Consider the opportunity to get your scores through a mobile app called BigFuture® School.
- Review the Privacy Notice about some optional questions about yourself, your educational experience, and your plans for after you graduate high school, and have the opportunity to provide answers.
- Learn about Connections™, and if offered where you test, an opportunity to opt in to this new program.
- Fill in the Digital Test Security pledge.
- Confirm your information on the test book.

Use of the Bluebook App

Your transcriber will enter your information and exam responses in the Bluebook digital testing application. They will see the following terms for use of the app, and will accept them on your behalf.

Please read these and check the box at the end to indicate that you've read and accept these policies.

Privacy Policy and Use of Bluebook

Welcome to Bluebook, College Board's testing app.

Bluebook and all of its content, features, and functionality are property of College Board and/or its licensors and are protected by copyright laws. You may only use Bluebook for its intended purposes. You are prohibited from taking screenshots in Bluebook and from attempting to reverse engineer, decompile, or otherwise attempt to reproduce, tamper with, or compromise the security of Bluebook in any way.

We (College Board) are committed to protecting your privacy. Please review our Privacy Policies at privacy.collegeboard.org. You can also read the Privacy Statement on page 17 of this document or under Help on the Bluebook homepage.

- Device Data: When you download and use Bluebook, College Board will receive certain information about your testing device, including device type, operating system type and version, applications and processes running on your device, Internet Protocol (IP) address, screen size and resolution, number of screens, available memory, storage and disk bytes, disk mount, type and size, battery level, and other device-specific information for the purposes described below.
- Activity Data: We also monitor and capture the actions you take in Bluebook, including your responses, where you click, where you put your mouse on the page, how long you spend on each page, ctrl/alt/delete attempts, and how you navigate through Bluebook.
- Device Data and Activity Data: Device Data and Activity Data (collectively, “Data”) may be used by College Board to make sure your testing device is compatible with Bluebook, for test security purposes, for test validation and research, and to develop and improve College Board products and services. Data may be disclosed to trusted vendors, but only in their provision of services to College Board, and we may disclose aggregated and de-identified Data. Data may be shared with your school, district, or state education department related to tests you take in Bluebook, including any misuse of Bluebook. Data is not sold or licensed to third parties, including without limitation for their marketing or other commercial purposes. You will also be asked to type specific sentences in Bluebook. Neither Data nor those typed sentences are used for biometric identification.

You will need an internet connection to use Bluebook.

You are responsible for maintaining the security of your login credentials, whether you log in with a code or with your College Board username and password.

Student: Indicate Your Acceptance of These Policies

I have read and I accept these policies.

IMPORTANT: When you have completed this section, put your pencil down and look up at the proctor.

Confirm Your Personal Information

Your transcriber will next see a screen that shows your name and your accommodations, if applicable. They’ll use the information you wrote on the front of this document to confirm it’s accurate.

Agree to Testing Rules

Next, you need to review the SAT School Day Testing Rules. When you reach the end of them, check the box next to “I have read and I accept these rules.” These rules are also provided in the SAT School Day Student Guide.

SAT School Day Testing Rules

Introduction

These Testing Rules (“Rules”) are a legal contract between you and College Board.

WARNING: There are serious consequences for not following the Rules. You may be dismissed from the test. Your test may not be scored, or your scores may be canceled. You may be banned from taking future College Board tests. Your conduct may be reported to your high school and colleges to which you apply.

NOTE: See Section 9 for how disagreements between you and College Board will be handled.

Section 1.

Taking the SAT

- The SAT® is a digital test. You will take the SAT at school, on a testing device, using an app called Bluebook™.
- Your testing device must be one of the following:
  - ◆ Windows laptop.
  - ◆ Mac laptop.
  - ◆ Windows tablet (external keyboard is required with a Windows tablet) or other tablet.
  - ◆ iPad.
  - ◆ Chromebook managed by your school.
  - ◆ In some cases, you may be able to take the SAT on a desktop computer in a school computer lab.
  - ◆ External Keyboards. If you are taking the SAT with Essay as may be required by your state, you must bring an external keyboard in order to test on any allowed tablet. If you are not taking the Essay, you must bring a keyboard to test on a Windows tablet as mentioned above.
- You cannot use any other devices to take the SAT. You cannot take the SAT on a mobile phone.
- Your testing device must have enough charge to last the duration of the exam and setup.
- Make sure your device is running on an approved operating system. See bluebook.collegeboard.org/students/approved-devices for more information.
- Bluebook must be downloaded to your testing device before you can take the SAT. If your testing device is managed by your school, your school may download Bluebook for you. It is your responsibility to check if your school did so. If you are using your own testing device, you will need to download Bluebook yourself. You can download Bluebook from the College Board website at bluebook.app.collegeboard.org.
- Before test day, use the sign-in ticket provided by your school to sign in to Bluebook. Once you sign in, follow the instructions in the app. Many students will complete these steps during a student readiness check run by their school.
- On test day, your school will direct you to your testing room. In your testing room, you will connect to your school’s internet. Your proctor will give you credentials to sign in to Bluebook.
- If you are not testing at a school that you regularly attend, you must bring an acceptable photo ID. See sat.org/id-requirements to learn about acceptable photo IDs.

- You MAY bring the following to the test:
  - ◆ A power cord and/or a portable charger. There is no guarantee that you will have access to an outlet for charging.
  - ◆ An external mouse and mouse pad.
  - ◆ A calculator that meets the requirements located at satsuite.collegeboard.org/sat/what-to-bring-do/calculator-policy. Before testing, you will be asked to clear all saved formulas on a calculator you bring. There is also a calculator in Bluebook that you can use instead of bringing your own if you wish. Either way, you can use a calculator for the entire Math section.
  - ◆ Pen or pencil for scratch work. This pencil does not have to be a No. 2 pencil. Proctors will give you paper before the test begins.
- Close all applications other than Bluebook before the test begins. You are not allowed to have any other apps running on your testing device during testing. You are not allowed to paste work into Bluebook from another program or application. Certain testing accommodations may allow for exceptions to this rule.
- An internet connection is required to start the test and to submit your answers at the end of the test. You will receive instructions from your proctor on test day if there is an internet outage.
- There are 2 sections of the SAT. The first section is Reading and Writing, and the second section is Math. Each section of the SAT has 2 modules (parts). An Essay section may also be required by your state. Once you leave a module, you cannot return to it.
- Bluebook has a timer that will count down the minutes and seconds remaining in each module. You can hide the timer until the last 5 minutes of the module.
- You must stay for the full length of the standard time test. You cannot submit your answers before the standard timer runs out.
- Enter all your answers into Bluebook.
- Do not close the lid or cover the screen of your testing device until your answers are submitted. Doing so may prevent your answers from being submitted.
- If your answers were successfully submitted, you will see a confirmation screen. If your testing device is not connected to the internet when the SAT ends and your answers are not submitted, you have until 11:59 p.m. local time the next day to reconnect to the internet and submit your answers.
- Generally, College Board will score all tests that have been started. If your answers are not complete, you may not receive a score or your scores may be used only for guidance purposes. In this case, scores may be reported to you, your school, your district, or your state, but will not be reportable to colleges and scholarship institutions.
- Some students may be approved to take the SAT using a paper test as a testing accommodation. In this case, students will select their answers in the test book. Students must select only 1 answer for each question. If the student selects more than 1 answer, the answer will be marked as wrong. Answers will be entered manually into Bluebook by testing staff or by College Board.

Section 2.

Items You Cannot Bring to the SAT

You may NOT bring the following items to the SAT or access them during breaks:

- electronic equipment including phones, smartwatches, fitness trackers, wearable technology such as smart glasses, cameras, recording or listening devices, or any other type of electronic or communication device (other than your testing device, approved calculator, and any technology where you have an approved testing accommodation)
- all stylus pens, Apple Pencils, smart pens, and other electronic writing instrument,
- books, reference guides, notes, compasses, protractors, dictionaries, highlighters, or colored pencil
- papers of any kind (scratch paper will be provided by proctors and collected at the end of the test)
- watches that beep, make a noise, or have an alarm
- calculators on the prohibited list located at satsuite.collegeboard.org/sat/what-to-bring-do/calculator-policy
- detachable privacy screens
- reference guides, keyboard maps, or other typing instructions
- headphones, earbuds (wired or wireless), ear plugs, or any in-ear or over-ear audio devices, including those with Bluetooth or noise-canceling capabilities, whether they are powered on or off
- weapons or firearms

Please note that some of the items on the above list may be allowed for students with certain testing accommodations.

Section 3.

Behaviors That Are Not Allowed

You are NOT allowed to do or attempt to do the following:

- cheat or otherwise get an unfair advantage on the SAT
- copy or record test questions, memorize questions for the purpose of writing them down later, or take a screenshot during the test
- interfere with or bypass Bluebook security features
- have any applications running on your testing device other than Bluebook or approved technology
- access or use any phone or other mobile device during the test or breaks
- access or use any digital resource(s) or website(s) during the test or breaks, including artificial intelligence (AI) tools such as ChatGPT, Photomath, and similar apps
- fail to turn in or store away a mobile phone by following your school's process
- use an answer key or receive information from other people about test questions
- discuss or share information about test questions with others
- talk to or otherwise communicate with others during the test
- allow anyone to see your test questions or answers or attempt to see or copy others' test questions or answers
- look at notes, electronic devices, textbooks, websites, or any other resources during the test or during breaks
- have information on your clothing, shoes, or body
- wear a hat or head covering (except when worn for medical or religious reasons; if a hooded garment is worn, the hood must remain down)
- share a calculator with another person or use a calculator on any test section other than the Math section
- leave the testing room after you are finished without being dismissed by staff
- take a testing device from the testing room or test site during the test or breaks
- go to a locker at any time during the test or breaks
- take the test for someone else or have someone else take the test for you
- provide false information to College Board
- disturb others during the test
- engage in unruly, aggressive, or violent behavior
- fail to follow these Rules or directions given by the testing staff

Section 4.

Score Cancellation

- a. Score Cancellation and Disciplinary Measures. If College Board determines that your scores are invalid under Section 4(b) below, or you have committed Misconduct under Section 4(c) below, we may, in our sole discretion, take 1 or more of the following measures (“Measures”): deny you entry to a test, dismiss you from the test, not score your test, cancel your scores, prevent you from taking future College Board tests (including the SAT, Advanced Placement® (AP®) and CLEP® exams), and/or share information with others as described in Section 4(f) below.

CAUTION! THE CONSEQUENCES OF CHEATING ON THE SAT ARE SEVERE.
- b. Invalid Scores. We may cancel your scores and/or take any of the other Measures described above if after following the procedures set forth in this section, we determine, in our sole discretion, that there is substantial evidence that your scores are invalid (“Invalid Scores”). Examples of evidence of Invalid Scores include, without limitation, unusual answer patterns or other evidence that indicates these Rules have been violated. Before canceling your scores under this Invalid Scores section, we will notify you in writing (via email if an email address is provided by you in Bluebook for this test) or through your school. We will then offer you 3 choices: voluntary score cancellation, a retest (if during the testing window and available at the test site), or an opportunity to give us additional information and request a further review by a College Board panel. If you choose a further review by a College Board panel, and it confirms, in its sole discretion, that your scores are invalid, we will offer you 3 choices: voluntary score cancellation, a retest (if during the testing window and available at the test site), or binding arbitration (or small claims court) as described below. If the retest option is available at your test site and you choose this, you may not review scores from the test under review—such scores will be canceled. The process described in this Section 4(b) is called the “Score Validity Process.” Additional information about security measures and consequences of violating security policies is located at satsuite.collegeboard.org/sat/test-security-fairness. The binding arbitration (or small claims court) option is available only for tests administered in the United States and U.S. territories.
- c. Misconduct. If we determine, in our sole discretion, that there is overwhelming evidence that you did not follow these Rules (“Misconduct”), the Score Validity Process will not be offered to you. Instead, we may cancel your scores and/or take any of the Measures described above. Examples of Misconduct are doing or attempting to do the following: using an answer key, mobile phone, the internet, or an application other than Bluebook; removing the test or answers; disrupting the College Board server or Bluebook through a cyberattack or other activity; duplicating the test or Bluebook; or altering the test, answer keys, or any data after testing was complete. Misconduct may be shown in many ways. For example, Misconduct may be shown through observations during the test or by evidence discovered after the test.
- d. Testing Irregularities. We may cancel your scores if we determine that any testing irregularity occurred (collectively “Testing Irregularities”). Examples of Testing Irregularities include problems with the test, irregular circumstances, or events associated with a test that may affect 1 or more test takers. Examples of this are errors like improper seating, improperly admitting someone to the test, giving an accommodation that is not approved by College Board, defective materials, defective equipment, technical issues like a Bluebook malfunction, testing device malfunction, hardware issues, or an internet outage. These also include evidence of possible preknowledge of the test, and disruptions of the test caused by internet disruptions, natural disasters, weather events, epidemics or pandemics, wars, riots, civil disturbances, or other emergencies. When Testing Irregularities occur, we may cancel an entire administration or individual registrations, decline to score all or part of the test, or cancel scores. We may do this regardless of whether or not you caused the Testing Irregularities, benefited from them, or violated these Rules. We may, in our sole discretion, give you the opportunity to take the test again within a reasonable time frame, and without charge. This is the only fix that may be available to you as a result of Testing Irregularities.

- e. Test Taker Reporting Violations or Suspicious Behavior. You may confidentially report any suspected violation of these Rules, or any suspicion concerning the security of any College Board test, by immediately reporting this information to College Board online at forms.collegeboard.org/reportcheating or by emailing us at collegeboardtestsecurity@collegeboard.org.
- f. College Board Sharing Information with Others. We may share the results of test security investigations (including without limitation those relating to Misconduct and Invalid Scores described above, and other disciplinary-related information), with others outside of College Board. This includes your school, any score recipient, college, higher education institution or agency, scholarship organization, potential score recipient, government agency in the United States or abroad, parents, legal guardians, or law enforcement. College Board may also share such information with others that have a good reason for knowing the information or who may be able to help College Board in its investigation or who may be conducting their own investigation. College Board may answer questions from any institution to which you submitted a score. If you make public any review, investigation, or decision of College Board, College Board may make public any and all details of such matter.

Section 5.

Privacy

- a. Privacy Policies. College Board recognizes the importance of protecting your privacy. Our privacy policies are located at collegeboard.org/privacy-center (“Privacy Policies”), and also available to you under Help on the Bluebook homepage. Privacy Policies are part of these Rules. You consent to the collection, use, and disclosure by College Board of your information, including personally identifiable information, described in the Privacy Policies and in these Rules. College Board may update its Privacy Policies from time to time, and they are subject to change up to 1 week prior to your test date and any subsequent test dates. You are required to review the Privacy Policies located on the College Board website at collegeboard.org/privacy-center prior to each test administration.

- b. Your Testing Device and Activity Data.

Your Testing Device Data: When you download and use Bluebook, College Board will receive certain information about your testing device. This includes things like device type, operating system type and version, applications and processes running on your testing device, Internet Protocol (IP) address, screen size and resolution, number of screens, available memory, storage and disk bytes, disk mount, type and size, battery level, and other device-specific information for the purposes described below.

Activity Data: We also capture and monitor the actions you take in Bluebook, including your responses, where you click, where you put your mouse on the page, how long you spend on each page, ctrl/alt/delete attempts, and how you navigate through Bluebook.

Testing Device Data and Activity Data: Your testing device Data and Activity Data (collectively, “Data”) may be used by College Board to make sure your testing device is compatible with Bluebook, for test security purposes, for test validation and research, and to develop and improve College Board products and services. Data may be disclosed to trusted vendors, but only when they are providing services to College Board, and we may disclose aggregated data (combined data of test takers that does not identify you) and de-identified data (data that does not have information to identify you). Data is not sold or licensed to third parties, including without limitation for their marketing purposes or other commercial purposes. We may share Data with your school, district or state education department related to the SAT you take in Bluebook, including any misuse of Bluebook. You will also be asked to type specific sentences in Bluebook. Neither Data nor those typed sentences are used for biometric identification.

c. BigFuture School. If you are age 13 or older, take the test within the United States, and choose to download and authenticate your identity in the BigFuture® School mobile app, you may access the educational services described below. We may also provide these educational services through other BigFuture School channels, such as a website portal exclusively for these services.

- ◆ Score Information. You may access your score(s) and other score information in BigFuture School. This is separate from a score report your school and/or district may provide to you. Score release dates will be posted online at satsuite.collegeboard.org/scores/score-release-dates.
- ◆ Educational and Career Information from College Board. We may provide you with educational information and recommendations about college and career options in BigFuture School. This may include, for example, AP Potential™, postsecondary options and opportunities, career pathways, scholarships, College Board National Recognition Program potential eligibility, financial aid and paying for college information, and opportunities to participate in College Board research studies. We may customize this information based on certain demographic information from your school, district, or state, information you provide during testing, your score(s) on this test, and your activities in BigFuture School.

d. Connections. Connections™ is a free, voluntary program that connects students with information about nonprofit accredited colleges and universities (domestic and international), nonprofit scholarship providers, and government agencies administering educational programs (“Eligible Organizations”). Matches are made with Eligible Organizations that may align with student interests without sharing any of their personal information. If available in your state, district, and/or school, you may choose to opt in to Connections during testing in Bluebook or in the BigFuture School mobile application. You may also be able to do so through other channels.

- ◆ Information Used to Make Connections. When you opt in to Connections, we will match you with Eligible Organizations based on the information that you and your school, district, or state provide to us as part of this test, score ranges on any of your past and future SAT, PSAT/NMSQT®, PSAT™ 10, and any AP Exams, your interests and preferences as controlled by you in BigFuture School, information you share in BigFuture School, and demographics and characteristics of students in which Eligible Organizations are interested. College Board will not share any of your personally identifiable information with any Eligible Organizations as part of Connections. We may provide reports and analytics to Eligible Organizations regarding your use of Connections, but only in de-identified and aggregated form.
- ◆ Kinds of Information about Eligible Organizations Received. You may receive information from us about Eligible Organizations to which you've been matched, including content about colleges that could be a good fit, information about scholarships you might be eligible for, advice about college access, and preliminary offers of admission. (For preliminary offers of admission: Only your SAT score ranges may be used by us; your race and ethnicity will not be used; and there is no guarantee of admissions, scholarships, or financial aid. Any preliminary offers of admission you receive may require you to complete additional steps to enroll and to confirm information about you the college relied upon to make the offer, as determined by the college.)
- ◆ How Information about Eligible Organizations is Provided. You may receive these messages through the BigFuture School mobile application, email, and postal mail (if you choose to download BigFuture School, and/or provide your email and/or address as part of this test or later in BigFuture School, all of which is optional). If you use the BigFuture School mobile app, you will also see your matched Eligible Organizations and which ones are interested in you through the Connections features in the app.
- ◆ How to Opt Out. You can opt out of Connections at any time by an opt-out feature within the BigFuture School mobile application or by contacting College Board customer service at 866-756-7346. You can also control specific communication preferences as you use Connections, including through email/mail/app notification controls within BigFuture School, an unsubscribe option within Connections emails, opt-out instructions included in each mailing, or by contacting College Board customer service at 866-756-7346.

More information about Connections is available at satsuite.org/bigfutureschool.

e. Scholarship Programs. College Board automatically sends your scores and personally identifiable information to the U.S. Presidential Scholars Program for test takers in all states, the District of Columbia, U.S. territories, and Puerto Rico, and for U.S. citizens abroad. In addition, based on your mailing address or high school, this information may also be sent to state scholarship and recognition programs in various states, including, by way of example only, Georgia, Illinois, Kentucky, Missouri, North Dakota, Tennessee, and West Virginia. This information is used by such programs to consider your eligibility for a scholarship or recognition program. College Board is not involved in any of the selection or decision making for any of these scholarship programs.

- ◆ Opt-out: You can opt out by notifying College Board, in writing, no more than 15 days after the test date, at College Board SAT Program, Attention: Confidentiality, P.O. Box 025505, Miami, FL 33102 or by contacting customer service at inquiry@collegeboard.org.

f. State Direct Admissions Programs. Based on your mailing address or high school, College Board may automatically send your scores and personally identifiable information to state government agencies that are operating direct admissions programs on behalf of their state public higher education institutions. This information is used by such programs to facilitate and administer these programs, including to consider your eligibility for direct admissions to the participating state public higher education institutions and may be disclosed to those institutions. There is no guarantee of admissions, scholarships, or financial aid. Any offers of direct admission you receive may require you to complete additional steps as defined by the state public higher education institution(s), such as to confirm your admission and enrollment as well as to be considered for financial aid. The state government agency operating the direct admissions program for the state public higher education institutions and each institution make the decision on offers of direct admission. College Board is not involved in any of the selection or decision-making by these state direct admissions programs.

- ◆ Opt-out: You can opt out by notifying College Board, in writing, no more than 15 days after the test date, at College Board SAT Program, Attention: Confidentiality, P.O. Box 025505, Miami, FL 33102 or by contacting customer service at inquiry@collegeboard.org.

g. Educational Reporting.

- ◆ We send your scores, data from your scores, and other information you provide during testing to your school and district. In addition, this information may be sent to your state for educational, diagnostic, and/or reporting purposes. (Students who test away from the school they regularly attend will have their scores shared with the school they regularly attend, and their scores will not be shared with the school at which they tested. Homeschooled students' scores won't be shared with the school that administers the test.)
- ◆ When you request that we send your scores to colleges or other organizations as designated by you during school day testing, we send your scores as well as certain demographic information from your school, district, or state and other information you provide during testing sufficient for identity matching to those colleges and organizations in accordance with the College Board website at sat.org/scores. We may share with your state, school, and district the names of the organizations you select for your free score sends available to you when you take the SAT.
- ◆ When you request that we send your scores to colleges or other organizations through your personal College Board account, we send your scores as well as certain demographic information and other information you provide to College Board to those colleges and organizations in accordance with the College Board website at sat.org/scores.

Section 6.

Miscellaneous

- a. Use of Artificial Intelligence. College Board may use artificial intelligence, machine learning, and other computational methods (collectively, “AI”), including in the development and scoring of tests and for test security purposes. The use of AI is monitored and is designed to help improve efficiency and fairness.
- b. In the event of a test security or other security-related concern, public health threat, natural disaster, terrorist act, civil unrest, epidemic, or other unexpected events or circumstances, College Board may cancel testing for all or a specific group of test takers in its sole discretion.
- c. Score Cancellation. Students who do not want their scores reported may request a cancellation by asking staff to submit a student-requested cancellation form on test day. After that, cancellation requests must be made within 5 days of the test day. In some instances, scores may still be shared with schools, states, or districts, but will not be shared with other audiences.
- d. College Board scores SAT exams in its sole discretion.
- e. In the very rare case that College Board is unable to confirm a complete set of test responses, we will report your score to you with a “Score Sends Held” designation. Incomplete responses could negatively affect your scores, so we will not report them to colleges, universities, or scholarship programs you selected in your score sends unless you contact us to request otherwise. You must call customer service at 866-756-7346 (+1-212-713-7789 internationally) to confirm release of these score sends.
- f. If you are testing at a school that you do not regularly attend, make sure your regular school downloads Bluebook to your school computer. If you bring your own testing device, you must download Bluebook yourself. College Board will provide public deadlines and guidelines for those not testing at their regular school. Schools have the leeway to decide whether to allow you to test at a school you don’t attend.
- g. For security purposes, including to protect the security and integrity of our tests, College Board may, in its sole discretion, decline to register you or administer a College Board test to you, prevent you from proceeding with a test, or dismiss you from a test.
- h. If College Board determines that you or others may be in danger, we may contact your parents, your guardians, your high school, law enforcement, and others. We may share information about you, including your personal information, with those we contact.
- i. For security purposes, including to protect the security and integrity of our tests, College Board (or someone who works for College Board) may collect recordings like images, video, or audio of you at your test site. Recordings are retained as long as reasonably necessary. College Board may disclose these recordings to law enforcement and/or as reasonably necessary to protect the rights and property of College Board or others.
- j. Your SAT may include questions that do not count toward your score. These questions may show up in any of the test sections. They are being pretested for future SAT administrations. Testing time for the SAT takes these questions into account.
- k. After the SAT, you may be asked to participate in a survey. Participation is totally up to you and will not affect your scores.
- l. College Board takes steps to make sure registration records, answers, and scores are properly managed. In the unlikely event of a problem, College Board will correct the error, if feasible. You may have to retest. College Board has sole discretion in deciding whether to score lost or corrupted answers that are eventually recovered.
- m. Additional information for students regarding the purpose of the SAT is located at satsuite.collegeboard.org/digital/test-security-fairness.
- n. Personal property that you bring to the testing site, such as purses, bags, and backpacks, may be searched. College Board may use tools that detect prohibited devices. College Board and testing staff may take personal property that could be used in violation of these Rules. College Board will hold this property for a reasonable amount of time for investigation.
- o. College Board is not responsible for any personal property.
- p. You should take the SAT only once during the testing window. In the event of a Testing Irregularity as described above, you are permitted up to 2 retests to obtain a valid score. Only 1 valid score will be recognized for the testing window. If you test more than once, other than for an authorized retest, College Board will cancel the most recent score to preserve fairness.

- q. Your school has sole discretion on when the test will be administered during the testing window and has the right to change the test date in its sole discretion.
- r. College Board is not responsible if you don't follow directions, steps, instructions, or these Rules related to taking the SAT. You may be prevented from taking the test or finishing the test. You may also be prevented from taking other College Board assessments in the future. These decisions are in the sole discretion of College Board.
- s. You may submit a report to College Board if you think there is an error or something is unclear in a test question. If so, College Board may need to hold your SAT score for this review. Your score may not be available by the published release date for your test.

Section 7.

Policies and Requirements

- a. All College Board policies and requirements described in these Rules, as well as those located at satsuite.collegeboard.org/sat/what-to-bring-do, sat.org/test-security, sat.org/scores, and sat.org (and information linked therein) are part of these Rules.
- b. College Board may update its policies and requirements from time to time. Updates may include changes to the types of testing devices that are permitted for the SAT. These policies can be changed up to 1 week prior to your test date. You must review them prior to each test.

Section 8.

Intellectual Property - Ownership of Materials

- a. All content contained within the SAT, practice SAT tests, the Student Question Bank, the Educator Question Bank, Bluebook, BigFuture School, College Board's websites (collegeboard.org), and all software, processes, algorithms, and other technologies used in connection with these (called "CB Property") belong only to College Board and its licensors. You have no rights in or to CB Property other than a personal license to use CB Property for its intended purposes and subject to its terms.
- b. Attempting to copy, download, decompile, or reverse engineer any CB Property is strictly prohibited. Taking pictures or screenshots of the SAT is strictly prohibited.
- c. Test answers and other testing materials you submit to College Board are owned by College Board. You have an independent right to your test scores, including the right to access, retain, and use your scores, except as otherwise described in these Rules.

Section 9.

ARBITRATION OF DISPUTES AND CLASS ACTION WAIVER

a. General Arbitration Rules ("General Arbitration Rules")

All disputes between you and College Board (each a "party") that relate in any way to registering for, participating in, or taking the SAT, including but not limited to requesting or receiving test accommodations, score reporting, the use of your data, test security issues, or the Score Validity Process (defined in the "Invalid Scores" section herein), will exclusively be resolved in binding arbitration or small claims court. By agreeing to arbitration in accordance with this section, you are waiving your right to have your dispute heard by a judge or jury except as set forth below. Disputes relating to the Score Validity Process are subject to both these General Arbitration Rules and the Supplemental Arbitration Rules defined in Section 9(b) below. If there is a conflict between the General Arbitration Rules and the Supplemental Arbitration Rules, the Supplemental Arbitration Rules will control.

Either party can seek to have a claim resolved in small claims court if the rules of that court will allow it. Additionally, if the claims asserted in any request or demand for arbitration could have been brought in small claims court, then either you or College Board may elect to have the claims heard in small claims court, rather than in arbitration, at any time before an arbitrator is appointed, by notifying the other party of that election in writing. Any dispute about whether a claim qualifies for small claims court will be resolved by that court and not by an arbitrator. In the event that either party elects to have their claims heard in small claims court, the arbitration proceeding will remain closed unless and until there is a decision by the small claims court that the claim should proceed in arbitration.

All claims that are not decided in small claims court must be resolved through binding, individual arbitration before a single arbitrator. The arbitration will be administered by the American Arbitration Association (“AAA”) under the AAA Consumer Arbitration Rules, supplemented by the AAA Mass Arbitration Supplementary Rules as applicable, in effect at the time a request for arbitration is filed with the AAA. Copies of the AAA Consumer Arbitration Rules and the AAA Mass Arbitration Supplementary Rules are located at adr.org. The arbitrator will have the authority to resolve any dispute regarding the scope or enforceability of these Rules, except only a court can decide claims that a party violated the intellectual property rights of the other party. In addition, only a court can decide issues relating to (a) the pre-arbitration requirements contained in these Rules or (b) the interpretation of the prohibition of class and representative actions contained in these Rules.

Before commencing a small claims court or arbitration proceeding, that party (the “complainant”) must provide the other party (the “respondent”) with a written notice of dispute that includes the complainant’s name and contact information, a detailed description of the dispute, relevant documents, the specific relief sought, and the complainant’s physical signature (signature by counsel to the party is not sufficient). For purposes of clarity and as stated above, this includes disputes relating to the Score Validity Process set forth below in Subsection 9(b). If you are the complainant, send the notice of dispute by first class mail, FedEx, or UPS. Please address to College Board, Legal Department, 225 Liberty Street, New York, NY 10281. Alternatively, you (or your counsel) can send the notice of dispute to legalhelp@collegeboard.org. A member of College Board’s Legal Department will then contact you (or your counsel) to attempt to resolve the dispute through informal good faith negotiations as described below. College Board will send its notice of dispute to your address as reflected in College Board’s records.

Also, before the complainant may commence a small claims court or arbitration proceeding, the parties must attempt to resolve the dispute through informal, good-faith negotiation. If the parties have not resolved the dispute within sixty (60) days of the respondent’s receipt of the written notice of dispute, the parties will mutually schedule a settlement conference which must occur within fourteen (14) days of the completion of the sixty (60) day period, unless otherwise mutually agreed by the parties. Each party must personally appear at the settlement conference (if a party is represented by counsel, their counsel may also participate), and appearances may be made telephonically or by video. If the parties are unable to resolve the dispute at the settlement conference, either party may commence arbitration or file a small claims court proceeding. The statute of limitations and any filing fee deadlines will be tolled while the parties engage in this informal dispute resolution process. If any aspect of the requirements in this Subsection 9(a) has not been met, a court can enjoin the filing or prosecution of an arbitration or the assessment of any arbitration fees. In addition, unless prohibited by law, the AAA cannot accept or administer an arbitration, nor assess any fees for an arbitration, that has not met the requirements of this Subsection 9(a). If the arbitration is already pending, it must be dismissed.

If the dispute proceeds to arbitration, the complainant must personally attend all arbitration conferences, hearings, and mediations scheduled by the AAA or by an arbitrator or mediator appointed by the AAA. If the complainant is represented by counsel, the complainant’s counsel may also participate, and all participation may be made telephonically or by video except as directed by the arbitrator or mediator. If a complainant fails to personally appear at any conference, hearing, or mediation scheduled by the AAA or by an AAA arbitrator or mediator, regardless of whether the complainant’s counsel attends, the arbitrator will administratively close the arbitration proceeding without prejudice, unless the complainant shows good cause as to why the complainant was not able to attend the conference, hearing, or mediation.

This arbitration will be conducted as a documents-only arbitration (i.e., there will be no in-person or telephonic hearing) unless otherwise agreed by the parties or required by the arbitrator. If the parties agree to or the arbitrator requires proceedings, such proceedings should be conducted at a location that is reasonably convenient to both parties with due consideration of their ability to travel and other pertinent circumstances. If the parties are unable to agree on a location, the parties agree that the proceedings will be conducted via a video or telephonic call or, in the event that face-to-face proceedings are agreed to by the parties or required by the arbitrator, at a location that is reasonably convenient to both parties in accordance with the AAA Consumer Arbitration Rules. The arbitrator may consider rulings in arbitrations involving other individuals, but an arbitrator's rulings will not be binding in proceedings involving different individuals. The existence and content of the arbitration proceedings, including documents and briefs submitted by the parties; any correspondence from the AAA; and correspondence, orders, and awards issued by the arbitrator, will remain strictly confidential and will not be disclosed to any third party without the express written consent from the other party, unless disclosure to the third party is reasonably required in the context of conducting the arbitration proceedings or related court proceedings.

For disputes meeting the definition of "Mass Arbitration" under the AAA Mass Arbitration Supplementary Rules, the parties agree that the dispute is subject to the AAA's Mass Arbitration Supplementary Rules and the parties agree to the appointment of a Process Arbitrator, except as may otherwise be decided by the arbitrator or the AAA.

The parties agree that the Federal Arbitration Act ("FAA") 9 U.S.C. § 1 et seq. governs this section, and it is the intent of the parties that the FAA will preempt all State laws to the fullest extent permitted by law.

No arbitration may be maintained as a class or collective action; a party may bring a claim only on their own behalf and cannot seek a relief that would affect other individuals. Unless all parties agree otherwise, the arbitrator will not have the authority to consolidate the claims of more than 1 individual, conduct any class or collective proceeding, make any class or collective award, or make an award to any person or entity not a party to the arbitration, without the express written consent of College Board.

Payment of all filing, administrative, and arbitrator fees and costs will be governed by the AAA's rules. If the arbitrator finds that either the substance of your claim or the relief sought was frivolous or was brought for an improper purpose (as measured by the standards set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11(b)), then College Board may seek applicable fee-shifting.

b. Supplemental Arbitration Rules for the Score Validity Process ("Supplemental Arbitration Rules")

If you receive a notice from College Board that your scores are subject to the Score Validity Process, you may be provided with the option to choose arbitration. In addition to the General Arbitration Rules, except as set forth herein, the below rules will apply.

The sole issue for the arbitrator to decide is whether College Board acted in good faith and followed the Score Validity Process.

This arbitration will be based only on (i) the documents you submitted to College Board pursuant to the Score Validity Process and (ii) College Board documents unless otherwise agreed by the parties or required by the arbitrator.

If the arbitrator finds that College Board did not act in good faith in deciding to cancel your scores, your scores will not be canceled (or they will be reinstated, if applicable).

All other disputes with College Board will be resolved solely by the General Arbitration Rules in Subsection 9(a) above, except as set forth herein.

Section 10.

Venue and Waiver of Jury Trial

All disputes (disagreements) arising from or related to these Rules that are not resolved under Section 9 shall be resolved only in the state and federal courts located in New York County, New York State, and each party to these Rules irrevocably consents to the jurisdiction of such courts. Each party expressly waives any right to a jury trial in any lawsuit arising from or related to these Rules.

Section 11.

LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY

EXCEPT TO THE EXTENT FINALLY DETERMINED TO BE PROHIBITED BY LAW, THE TOTAL LIABILITY OF COLLEGE BOARD TO YOU OR ANYONE CLAIMING BY OR THROUGH YOU OR ON YOUR BEHALF, FOR ANY CLAIMS, LOSSES, COSTS, OR DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF OR RESULTING FROM OR IN ANY WAY RELATED TO COLLEGE BOARD, OR ANY TEST ADMINISTRATION BY COLLEGE BOARD, FROM ANY CAUSE, SHALL NOT EXCEED THE TEST REGISTRATION FEES YOU PAID TO COLLEGE BOARD (IF APPLICABLE) OR $100.00, WHICHEVER IS GREATER. IN ADDITION, COLLEGE BOARD WILL NOT BE LIABLE IN ANY EVENT FOR ANY CONSEQUENTIAL, INDIRECT, PUNITIVE, EXEMPLARY, OR SPECIAL DAMAGES.

Section 12.

DISCLAIMER OF WARRANTIES

COLLEGE BOARD MAKES NO WARRANTIES REGARDING THE SAT, SAT CONTENT, OR THE APPLICATION INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION A WARRANTY THAT THE TESTING EXPERIENCE WILL BE UNINTERRUPTED OR ERROR FREE. YOU ACCEPT THE SAT, SAT CONTENT, AND TESTING APPLICATION AS IS.

Section 13.

Severability

If any provision or part of these Rules is held to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable, the remaining provisions will nevertheless continue in full force without being impaired or invalidated in any way, and, to the extent possible, the invalid, illegal, or unenforceable provision shall be modified so that it is valid, legal, and enforceable and, to the fullest extent, reflects the intention of the parties.

Section 14.

Restricted Registrations

College Board, along with our service providers overseas, is subject to U.S. economic sanctions, laws, and regulations and is prohibited from providing testing services to, or accepting registrations from, persons residing in certain areas or designated by the U.S. government as Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons (collectively, "Sanctioned Persons"), unless specifically licensed or otherwise authorized by the U.S. government. You consent to use of your personally identifiable information by College Board to verify whether you are a Sanctioned Person. If a Sanctioned Person attempts to register despite U.S. sanctions that prohibit College Board from doing business with such Sanctioned Person, College Board or a U.S. financial institution may block the registration or payments submitted by or for such Sanctioned Persons. If payment is not blocked, College Board is required to cancel the registration and may not be able to refund the payment. Please contact SAT customer service at 866-756-7346 (+1-212-713-7789 internationally) or the website of the U.S. Treasury Department's Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC) to obtain the current list of sanctioned programs and Sanctioned Persons.

Section 15.

Accessibility of These Rules

If you have difficulty accessing these Rules, including our policies and requirements, please contact College Board customer service at 866-756-7346 (+1-212-713-7789 internationally) or satsuite.collegeboard.org/contact-us in advance of registering for or taking the SAT. We will be happy to provide these Rules in an alternative format or assist you in some other manner as reasonably necessary to enable you to access these Rules.

Privacy Statement

Effective Date: July 10, 2025

In addition to updates being announced on our Privacy Center, College Board online account holders will have a temporary alert within their account when updates are made.

You count on us to take privacy seriously and we embrace that obligation.

Thank you for visiting the College Board Privacy Statement, which explains how College Board (“College Board,” “We,” “Us,” “Our”) collects, processes, uses, discloses, and protects personally identifiable information. College Board is a mission-driven not-for-profit organization that connects students to college success and opportunity, and its data and privacy practices align directly with this mission.

Scope

This Privacy Statement covers our privacy practices across all our programs, including serving individuals and organizations.

This Privacy Statement applies to the programs and services we provide to individuals and to schools, districts, state departments of education, colleges, universities, and other organizations. This Privacy Statement also explains how we use and protect the personally identifiable information you share with us when you use sites and mobile apps owned and operated by College Board.

This Privacy Statement links to other areas where you can learn even more.

- Residents of specific states and countries may find more information consistent with their applicable law in our Jurisdiction-Specific Privacy Supplements: California, State Consumer Privacy Laws, and EEA, UK and Brazil.
- Privacy policies for specific College Board programs give further information about their data collection, use, and disclosure practices: Program-Specific Privacy Policies and other Supplemental Resources (privacy.collegeboard.org).
- You may also read our Data Privacy Principles, which guide our overall data privacy practices (privacy.collegeboard.org/data-privacy-principles).

Personally Identifiable Information Collected

We will collect the information we need to provide you with our programs and services, and give you choices on how much more information you share with us to best serve you.

College Board provides programs and services to individuals as well as to institutions. The information we may collect varies and depends on who we are serving and in which programs and services they are participating.

The types and categories of personal data collected are further specified in Program-Specific Privacy Policies, Supplemental Resources, and our agreements with educational institutions, which may include contact information; demographic information; information to verify an individual’s identity; information for test administration such as their disability; device information; information about students’ interests, educational experience, and plans for after they graduate high school; educational institutional affiliation; or information about professionals’ role(s) at an educational institution.

Information collected from individuals.

College Board collects personally identifiable information that you provide to us and about your use of our programs and services.

Individuals do not need to create an online account to view and use most of our website. If you are a student, you may create a “student” account, and if you are an educator, representative of an educational institution, or exam administrator (exam coordinator or proctor), you may create a “professional” account.

- Student Accounts: Students need a College Board account to register for tests directly with us, view and send scores, personalize their web experience, or use certain tools on our site, such as the college and career tools on the BigFuture pages of our site. Student account creation requires acceptance of Legal Terms for Students (privacy.collegeboard.org/student-legal-terms). Student accounts are personal to and belong to the student who creates the account and serve as the student’s gateway to various College Board programs and services.
- Professional Accounts: Education professionals need a College Board account to perform certain tasks or save personalized information. Professional account creation requires acceptance of the Legal Terms for Educators and Institutions (privacy.collegeboard.org/educator-legal-terms). Professional accounts are created by professionals acting solely in their capacity as authorized representatives of their respective institutions and are not for their personal use.

For any programs and services requiring payment for which a credit card is used, credit card information will be collected and processed by a third-party payment processor. A tokenization approach is used through which your full credit card information is not stored in our systems.

Information collected from other sources.

College Board collects personally identifiable information from schools, districts, state departments of education, colleges, universities, and other third parties. When College Board has an agreement with a school, district, state department of education, or higher education institution to provide assessments, financial aid services, and/or other educational services, it only collects students’ and educators’ information as necessary to provide those services.

We may receive information about you from other sources, such as third parties that have authority to share the information. We may also collect information automatically such as through cookies as further described here: privacy.collegeboard.org/privacy-statement/cookies-do-not-track-signals.

Information Use and Disclosure

College Board will only use and disclose your personally identifiable information to carry out our organization’s mission for the following purposes.

- Consent. We will use and disclose your personally identifiable information with your consent and at your direction.
- Provide Our Programs and Services. We use and disclose personally identifiable information to provide you or your educational institution with our programs and services, such as to administer tests, send scores, connect students with colleges and scholarships, and for educational efforts that help students and educators. When you agree to use a College Board program or service, you agree to the processing of your personally identifiable information as described in this Privacy Statement and the applicable agreement or terms of use presented to you, if any; see Program-Specific Privacy Policies and Supplemental Resources. All students have independent rights in their own test scores, including students’ rights to access, retain and use their test scores and direct College Board to share their test scores.
- Serve Educational Institutions. When College Board has an agreement with a school, district, state department of education, or higher education institution to provide assessments, financial aid services, and/or other educational services, it uses and discloses students’ and educators’ personally identifiable information as necessary to provide those services and for other limited purposes permitted by our agreements.

College Board fully complies with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act, 20 U.S.C. s. 1232g, and its implementing regulations, 34 C.F.R. pt. 99 (“FERPA”), and state student data privacy laws, as applicable.

- Educational Reporting. We provide student information in accordance with our contracts and applicable international and domestic law to high schools, districts, colleges, and governmental agencies. At the request of these organizations, we provide student information to third parties in support of the organization’s educational, diagnostic, and/or reporting purposes.
- Operational Third Parties. We use and disclose personally identifiable information to third parties providing services to College Board as necessary for their performance of those services, such as:
  - ◆ administering testing services,
  - ◆ producing and generating student score reports,
  - ◆ processing CSS Profile applications and requests for financial information,
  - ◆ administering scholarship and recognition programs,
  - ◆ developing instructional materials and tools,
  - ◆ providing customer service,
  - ◆ sending email and SMS communications,
  - ◆ supporting the operation, hosting, and enhancing of our website(s),
  - ◆ event registration and administration,
  - ◆ payment processing,
  - ◆ fulfilling orders and shipping, and
  - ◆ maintaining, developing, supporting, improving, and diagnosing our products and services.

These vendors cannot relicense, sell, rent, or otherwise repurpose the information. These organizations have contractual requirements to protect personally identifiable information from unauthorized access, use, or disclosure.

- Customer Service. We use personally identifiable information to maintain your account and to verify user identity during customer service calls and respond to specific requests.
- Web Experience. We use personally identifiable information to customize and/or personalize your website experience, such as prefilling a test registration with stored personally identifiable information or fulfilling online purchase requests or other transactions performed on our website(s). See privacy.collegeboard.org/privacy-statement/cookies-do-not-track-signals for more details.
- Research: We use personally identifiable information for research consistent with our mission, such as with respect to:
  - ◆ psychometric validity (e.g., does an assessment reliably and consistently measure what it’s supposed to measure, including across subgroups, and is that measurement predictive of performance in college?),
  - ◆ assessment and program design and improvement (e.g., is there a better way to measure this skill?)
  - ◆ safeguarding test security and fairness,
  - ◆ student engagement and program effectiveness (e.g., do students who do this activity learn or otherwise receive the intended benefits?),
  - ◆ identifying and producing public reports about trends in education, and
  - ◆ supporting educational research (with aggregated or de-identified data) by educational institutions and other reputable third party organizations.

For more information about our research, visit our Research page (research.collegeboard.org).

- Internal Analytics. We use personally identifiable information to maintain, develop, support, improve, and diagnose College Board products, services, and applications.
- Parents and Legal Guardians. If you are under the age of 18, we may disclose your information to your parent(s) and/or legal guardian(s).
- Other Instances. We may also disclose your personally identifiable information as required by law, for example, to comply with a subpoena or other legal process, when we believe in good faith that it's necessary to protect our rights, protect your safety, or the safety of others, investigate and help prevent fraud, or respond to a government request. College Board may use and disclose anonymized, aggregated, and de-identified data, except to the extent such disclosure may be limited by law or in an agreement it may have with an individual or institution.

Access to Your Information and Data Retention

You can access your information and have certain choices on how to update and manage your information.

College Board will give you information about whether we have, or process on behalf of a third party, any of your personally identifiable information, if reasonably available and subject to applicable laws.

We may keep your information as needed for legitimate educational purposes, to provide services to you or your educational institution, comply with our legal obligations, resolve disputes, and enforce our agreements. Depending on where you live, you may have certain rights to request deletion of your personally identifiable information, subject to limitations and exceptions under applicable laws. College Board uses secure methods to delete or destroy personally identifiable information.

If you have a College Board account, you may access and correct certain of your information by logging in to your account at my.collegeboard.org/profile.

You can also ask us to close your College Board account. If College Board closes your account, you won't be able to access your account. For students, this also means you will not be able to see or send any of your scores, or see information related to any other account activity. For educators, this also means you will lose your ability to access any of our programs or applications such as those used to administer College Board exams, AP teacher-related resources, and financial aid program tools. You'll also be unsubscribed from optional communications and Student Search Service™, if applicable. Closing your account does not delete your information and you may request that College Board reactivate your account at a future date.

To make requests to access, correct, restrict, or delete your personally identifiable information or close your College Board account, please complete the Your Privacy Choices webform (form.collegeboard.org/386?navId=gf-pc), email us at DataProtectionInquiry@collegeboard.org, or contact Customer Service. We'll respond to these requests within a reasonable timeframe and as required by applicable law.

Communications and Engagement

We keep you informed about the programs you are participating in, and you can choose what you want to learn more about.

College Board uses your personally identifiable information to contact you about our programs and services, which are available to you as an individual and/or to institutions you may represent.

If you have a College Board account, you can manage your communication preferences. Based on your choices, we may send you two types of emails: transactional communications and optional communications about our programs and services.

- Transactional emails relate directly to your participation in a College Board program or service or an action you took on our site.
- Optional emails inform individuals about College Board programs, services, newsletters, alerts, events, and surveys. When you create a College Board account, you're given the option to receive these communications from us and can change your preferences at any time. To unsubscribe from optional emails:

Cookies and Related Technologies

We collect data through cookies and other technologies to customize and improve our programs.

Like most websites, our systems gather certain information automatically. This information is used to analyze usage trends in the aggregate and administer and improve the site, as well as personalize your experiences with College Board. Please visit our Cookie and Web Technologies Notice (privacy.collegeboard.org/cookie-notice) for more information about these technologies, information we obtain through them, how we use information, and how you can manage your choices.

Third Parties and Online Advertising: We do not display any third party advertising on our site.

See also our State Consumer Privacy Laws Supplemental Privacy Notice for additional information.

Protection and Security of Information

We implement safeguards to protect your data.

College Board has a variety of reasonable administrative, technical, and physical safeguards in place to protect the security and confidentiality of personally identifiable information.

We follow industry-recognized security practices and standards to protect the personally identifiable information given to us, both during transmission and once it's received.

College Board will notify individuals in the event of a data incident involving unauthorized access to their personally identifiable information, consistent with and as required by law and contractual requirements. College Board has ISO 27001 and SOC-2 certifications and is certified by third-party auditors annually to help us proactively manage risks and controls. However, because no data transmission over the internet nor any website, mobile application, database, or system can be guaranteed 100% secure, we can't guarantee the security of information. If you have any questions about the security of your personally identifiable information, email us at privacy@collegeboard.org.

Links: To give you more resources and information, we may include third-party links such as to colleges, universities, access organizations, scholarship organizations, career information, test preparation, and site administration on our site. These linked sites have separate and independent privacy policies that you should read. We have no responsibility or liability for the content and activities of these linked sites, but we want to protect the integrity of our site and welcome any feedback about these linked sites (including if a specific link doesn't work).

Children Under 13

Our online programs are for those at least 13 years old.

We do not knowingly collect personally identifiable information online from children under 13. If you know of a child giving us this type of information online, please send us a message (form.collegeboard.org/f/send-message) or contact Customer Service (privacy.collegeboard.org/contact-us) to have the account deactivated.

International Users and Data Transfers

We are based in the U.S. and process data in the U.S.

College Board, its website, and its website servers are located and operated in the United States, requiring your information to be transferred from your location to the United States, which may not provide the same level of protection for your personally identifiable information as your home country. The information may be available to the United States government or its agencies under a lawful order in the United States. When you give information to College Board through this website for any reason or otherwise send us your personally identifiable information, including for any of the services we offer, you acknowledge a cross-border transfer of that information to the United States. In addition, College Board works with a trusted third-party service provider, Alorica, to provide customer service with contact centers in the United States and the Philippines. If you do not agree to this international transfer of data, you shouldn't use the website and the services it offers or otherwise send us your personally identifiable information. If you choose to revoke your consent to such transfer, and this is the lawful basis for the processing, we may cease processing your information. Depending on the service you're using the website for, it may impact your ability to apply or be accepted to a U.S. college or university.

In certain countries, data protection and privacy laws provide individuals with certain rights, such as the right to access, correct, request deletion of, restrict or object to the processing of, or portability of your personally identifiable information. To exercise these rights, please complete the Your Privacy Choices webform (form.collegeboard.org/f/data-subject-rights-request?navId=gf-pc) or email us at DataProtectionInquiry@collegeboard.org. If you exercise or seek to exercise any of those rights, our obligations to respond are limited by and subject to applicable law.

EEA, UK and Brazil residents—please read the EEA, UK and Brazil Privacy Notice.

Jurisdiction-Specific Privacy Supplements

Notice of Your California Privacy Rights

California Residents—Your Privacy Rights: California law (California Civil Code Section 1798.83) permits residents of California to opt out of College Board disclosure of personally identifiable information to third parties for marketing purposes at any time. College Board will not disclose your personally identifiable information to third parties for marketing without giving you notice and getting your consent. Please note—this opt-out doesn't prohibit disclosures for non-marketing purposes. You can opt out for free by contacting us at privacy.collegeboard.org/contact-us or writing to:

College Board
11955 Democracy Drive
Reston, VA 20190
Attention: Student Search Service

Please note that College Board is not subject to the California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA) or the California Privacy Rights Act (CPRA) as a nonprofit organization.

California Do Not Track Disclosure

Some browsers may be able to send a do not track signal to websites. The College Board site does not respond to do not track signals or similar mechanisms and requests.

State Consumer Privacy Laws Supplemental Privacy Notice

This supplemental privacy notice gives residents of certain states additional information required by their applicable consumer privacy laws, a current list of which is available on our Privacy Center. These provisions, together with the statements in the College Board privacy notices, explain our practices for processing residents' personal data to the extent their state's consumer privacy law applies. If there are material changes to the Privacy Statement or its State Consumer Privacy Laws Supplemental Privacy Notice, we will contact those as required by their state laws using their College Board account email address.

Sensitive Data: College Board may collect and process certain information defined as sensitive under applicable states' laws. This may include your race and ethnicity to provide and personalize our programs and services and conduct research consistent with our mission, mental or physical health condition or diagnosis to process your request for testing accommodations, citizenship to process your CSS Profile application, and data about individuals under age 13 to provide programs requested by them. Further specificity on processing purposes for sensitive data will be provided to you through informed, express consent for any such processing as required by law. You may have the right to opt-out of the processing of sensitive data as part of our consumer programs and services, which you may do through our Consent Management Preferences Center at my.collegeboard.org/profile/privacy. You may also call Customer Service at 866-756-7346 or email inquiry@collegeboard.org for further instructions or assistance with access to the Consent Management Preferences Center.

Your Rights: College Board respects your right to access, correct, and request deletion of your personally identifiable information and to portability of it as required by law. Depending on where you live, this means:

- You have a right to know if College Board maintains your personally identifiable information. If we do, you have the right to access it and request that we provide you a copy of your information (subject to the rights of others) in a portable, and, to the extent technically feasible, readily usable format that allows you to transmit it to another entity.
- If your information is inaccurate, you have the right to ask us to update it.
- You may ask us to delete your personally identifiable information.
- You may ask us to identify third parties or categories of third parties to whom data may have been provided.

To exercise these rights, please complete the Your Privacy Choices webform (form.collegeboard.org/f/data-subject-rights-request), email us at DataProtectionInquiry@collegeboard.org, or write to us at the U.S. address provided in this Privacy Statement and our Customer Service team will assist you. You may also go to my.collegeboard.org/profile to access and correct certain personal data. Our ability to delete personal information will be limited when we're required to retain records, as in connection with score reports and test security processes.

While not the "sale" of data as defined under otherwise applicable state consumer privacy laws, College Board also respects your right to opt out of Student Search Service (Search). You can opt out of Search at any time by submitting the Your Privacy Choices webform (form.collegeboard.org/f/data-subject-rights-request), going to my.collegeboard.org/profile/privacy, contacting us at 866-825-8051, or emailing us at SearchCustomerService@collegeboard.org.

You may authorize someone to act on your behalf to exercise these rights, using the same methods described above. We may need to verify your identity, and any authorized agent authorized by you to act on your behalf, before we can process your request. College Board's process to authenticate identity includes name, date of birth, and security phrase or security questions, as well as further validation processes, if necessary, including use of the phone number associated with the account.

If College Board does not take the action you requested when exercising these rights, you may appeal such inaction within a reasonable period after we have notified you of our denial of your request. To submit your appeal, please complete the Your Privacy Choices webform (form.collegeboard.org/f/data-subject-rights-request), email us at DataProtectionInquiry@collegeboard.org, or write to us at the U.S. address provided in this Privacy Statement.

Marketing Cookies: When you visit our website and with your consent, we place cookies on your computer. While College Board does not use data for targeted advertising as defined by state consumer privacy laws otherwise applicable to College Board, for convenience visitors to our site from certain states can opt out of cookies for nonessential website purposes when they first access our site, including marketing cookies. You may exercise your right to opt out of processing personal data for marketing cookies accessing the "Manage Cookies" link at the footer of a College Board webpage or a floating cookie icon at the bottom of your screen while on our website. Please see the Cookies and Website Usage (privacy.collegeboard.org/privacy-statement/cookies-do-not-track-signals) for more information about cookies and similar technologies.

EEA, UK and Brazil Supplemental Privacy Notice

This supplemental privacy notice gives those located in the European Economic Area (EEA), United Kingdom (UK), and Brazilian residents additional information required by local law. These provisions, together with the statements in the College Board privacy notices, explain our practices for processing EEA, UK, and Brazilian residents' personal data.

Cookies: Visitors to our site from the EEA, UK and Brazil can opt out of cookies for nonessential website purposes when they first access our site. When you visit our website and with your consent, we place cookies on your computer. After you make selections through our cookie banner, you can manage options at any time here. This is also available to you through a "Manage Cookies" link at the footer of a College Board webpage or a floating cookie icon at the bottom of your screen while on our website.

Please see the Cookies and Website Usage (privacy.collegeboard.org/privacy-statement/cookies-do-not-track-signals) for more information about cookies and similar technologies.

This EEA, UK and Brazil Privacy Notice explains why we collect your personally identifiable information and how we process it. When necessary, we collect and process your information per the lawful bases described below:

- To fulfill a contract with you, for instance to provide a College Board test or a test offered by another company on behalf of College Board.
- We may provide personally identifiable information to our operational third parties (processors) and other trusted businesses or persons to process it for us, based on our written instructions and in compliance with our Privacy Statement and any other appropriate confidentiality and security measures. For example, we use service providers to help process and score our tests.
- To process a payment, to create an account on our website, and for website management.

We may also process your personally identifiable information with your consent to send you optional email communications, enroll you in Student Search Service, or send your scores to your designated recipients.

We may also process your personally identifiable information for the purposes of our legitimate interests, if processing it doesn't outweigh your rights and freedoms. We may process your personal information as needed to:

- Protect you, us, or others from threats (such as test security, security threats, or test fraud).
- Improve College Board tests and support College Board research initiatives.
- Enable or administer our business, such as for quality control, consolidated reporting, and customer service.
- Manage corporate transactions, such as mergers or acquisitions.
- Understand and improve our business, improve test integrity, and for research purposes.

We may also process your personally identifiable information to comply with applicable laws.

Automated Decision Making and Profiling: College Board may use automated processes in connection with scoring tests and for similar purposes, as needed to provide the test services you have requested, and for fraud prevention related to test security. All of these decisions are subject to human review. We will not make automated decisions about you that may significantly affect you, unless (a) the decision is necessary as part of a contract we have with you, (b) we have your explicit consent, or (c) we're required by law to use the technology. You can learn more about test scoring by reading the information posted on our website about each of our tests. You can learn more about test security by reading the information posted on our website.

In some cases, we use certain elements of personal data for College Board research. For example, we may consider how certain types of test takers (such as non-native English speakers) respond to specific test questions. Our research initiatives reflect our commitment to fairness and equity in testing, helping to ensure that our tests are accessible and free from bias. They also aim to improve teaching, learning, and assessment. Our research results do not contain any identifiable data and aren't used to target or profile individuals. Visit research.collegeboard.org to learn more.

Your Rights: As stated in this EEA, UK and Brazil Privacy Notice, you always have the right to object to our optional email communications. To opt out of these emails, click the Unsubscribe link at the bottom of any email we send you. And see the sections above related to communications and engagement for information about your choices and opting out.

College Board also respects your right to access, correct, and request erasure or restriction of your personally identifiable information as required by law. This means:

- You have a right to know if College Board maintains your personally identifiable information. If we do, we'll give you a copy (subject to the rights of others). If your information is incorrect or incomplete, you have the right to ask us to update it.
- You have the right to object to our processing of your personally identifiable information.

You may also ask us to delete or restrict your personally identifiable information, including a copy of your information related to your right to data portability.

To exercise these rights, please complete the Your Privacy Choices webform (form.collegeboard.org/f/data-subject-rights-request), email us at DataProtectionInquiry@collegeboard.org, or write to us at the U.S. address provided in this Privacy Statement and our Customer Service team will assist you (we may need to verify your identity before we can process your request). Our ability to delete personal information will be limited when we're required to retain records, as in connection with score reports and test security processes.

If you believe we have processed your personally identifiable information in violation of applicable law, you can file a complaint with the College Board Chief Privacy Officer by emailing privacy@collegeboard.org or with a supervisory authority.

Data Retention: We'll retain your personally identifiable information for as long as the information is needed for the purposes detailed above and for any additional period that may be required or permitted by law. You may request that we delete your personally identifiable information by completing the Your Privacy Choices webform (form.collegeboard.org/f/data-subject-rights-request) or emailing us at DataProtectionInquiry@collegeboard.org. Unless we're required by law to retain your information or have a legitimate interest in retaining it, we'll delete it within 30 days of your request. If you ask us to delete your data you won't be able to access any College Board account or test scores or send test scores to any colleges, universities, or any other third parties.

IMPORTANT: When you have completed this section, put your pencil down and look up at the proctor.

Important

You are about to read more information about Connections, a free program where College Board shares information about educational organizations looking for students like you. Read the following information if you do not currently participate in Connections. If you already participate in Connections, please skip to the next section titled Get Even More with Connections! Then continue to Send Your SAT Score for Free.

Get Connected to Colleges, Scholarships, and More!

Connect with Colleges and Scholarships

Sign up for Connections, a free program where College Board shares messages from educational organizations looking for students like you.

Read on, then check the box below to sign up.

NOTE: Please know that your school, district, or state may choose to not provide access to Connections for its students.

What kind of organizations could I hear from?

- Nonprofit colleges and universities
- Nonprofit scholarship providers
- Government agencies running educational programs

What kind of messages might I receive?

- Content about colleges that could be a good fit
- Info about scholarships you might be eligible for
- Advice about college access
- Offers of direct admissions

NOTE: Sometimes, colleges reach out to students with a preliminary offer of admission, without the student needing to submit an application. This is called “direct admissions.” For direct admission offers:

- Your race and ethnicity will not be used.
- Though some colleges may be test-optional, College Board assessment test score ranges may be part of the decision-making process for these direct admissions offers.
- There is no guarantee of admissions, scholarships, or financial aid.
- Any offers of direct admission you receive may require you to complete additional steps as defined by the college.
- The college may also require confirmation of information it relied upon in making an offer of admission, such as submitting your final transcript to complete the admissions process.
- After you get the offer, you may share more information directly with the college to consider a comprehensive financial aid package as well as confirm your admission and enrollment.
- Each college makes the decision on offers of direct admission.
- College Board is not involved in any of the selection or decision making by any of the colleges.
- If you don’t receive an offer, you may still apply using the regular application process.

Will you share my personal information? No! We never share your personal info with these organizations. If you're interested in one of the organizations we tell you about, you decide if you want to contact them.

NOTE: We may provide reports about students' use of Connections to participating educational organizations, but none of your personal information will be included. Information about your participation may be shared with your school, district, or state department of education.

What information about me may be used to make connections? College Board uses the following information to deliver messages on behalf of organizations that may be a good match for you:

- Information you and your school, district, or state provide as part of this test, and any information you share in BigFuture School
- Your score range on this test and on any of your other past and future College Board assessments

NOTE: By participating, you consent for College Board to use in Connections the score range from any prior or future College Board assessment, including from today's test. This includes the SAT School Day, SAT Weekend, PSAT/NMSQT, PSAT 10, and any AP Exams you may have taken. For messages offering direct admission, only your SAT score ranges may be used.

- Your educational and career interests and preferences shared in BigFuture School

How will I receive the information? We may send you messages via BigFuture School, email, and physical mail.

What if I change my mind? Participation in Connections is voluntary, and you can opt out at any time.

NOTE: Being part of Connections is voluntary and you can opt out at any time. If you already participate in Connections and you don't select "Yes" on this screen, you will not be opted out. You can opt out any time via an opt-out feature within the BigFuture School app or by contacting College Board's customer service at (866) 756-7346. You are also able to control specific communication preferences as you use Connections, including through email/mail/app notification controls within the BigFuture School app, an unsubscribe option within Connections emails, opt-out instructions included in each Connections mailing, and by contacting College Board's customer service.

Yes, I want to participate in Connections.

Important

Read the following information if you already participate in Connections. If you don't already participate in Connections, please return to the previous section titled Get Connected to Colleges, Scholarships, and More! Then continue to Send Your SAT Score for Free.

Get Even More with Connections!

Find Schools that are Interested in You

You're already opted in to Connections, a free program where College Board shares information about colleges and educational organizations looking for students like you. Explore new college matching features. You will now see organizations that match your preferences and ones that are interested in you. Get more than a score with today's test. Connections will use information you and your school, district, or state provide as part of this test, to personalize the list of programs we tell you about. Your educational and career interests and preferences shared in BigFuture School and your score range on this test and on any of your other past and future College Board assessments may also be used to make connections.

NOTE: With your ongoing participation in Connections, you understand and agree that College Board may use the score range from any prior or future College Board assessment, including from today's test. This includes the SAT School Day, SAT Weekend, PSAT/NMSQT, PSAT 10, and any AP Exams you may have taken. For messages offering preliminary admission, only your SAT score ranges may be used.

We never share your personal information in Connections. If you're interested in one of the organizations we tell you about, you decide if you want to contact them.

NOTE: We may provide reports about students' use of Connections to participating educational organizations, but none of your personal information will be included. Information about your participation may be shared with your school, district, or state department of education.

Get messages and information like these in Connections:

- Content about colleges that could be a good fit
- Info about scholarships you might be eligible for
- Advice about college access
- Offers of direct admissions

NOTE: Sometimes, colleges reach out to students with a preliminary offer of admission, without the student needing to submit an application. This is called "direct admissions."

- If you don't receive an offer, you may still apply using the regular application process.

Participation in Connections is voluntary, and you can opt out at any time. If you do opt out, we will update your status after you take this test. And you'll no longer receive Connections information through the BigFuture School app, email, or mail, and you won't see any Connections content in BigFuture School.

You are already participating in Connections. If you would like to continue receiving information about colleges and educational organizations looking for students like you, you do not need to take any action today and can continue reading the next section of this document.

To opt out of Connections and stop receiving information about colleges and educational organizations, check the box below.

I want to opt out of Connections.

We will update your status after you take this test. If you change your mind later, go to the BigFuture School mobile app to opt back in.

Send Your SAT Score for Free

Choose up to four institutions to send your score to. This step is optional.

Select four colleges or scholarship programs to send your score to for free. You can change your selections up to three days after your test.

NOTE: We will send your score along with your demographic information sufficient for identity matching to the institutions you select. We share with your school and district the names of the institutions you select. You may make your free selections now or within three days after testing. To make or change your selections within those three days, use your sign-in ticket from this test to sign in to Bluebook. Then go to My Tests > Past where this test will be listed and click SAT Score Sends. You can select institutions to share your score with later online, but you'll have to pay for each score you send (unless you're eligible for a fee waiver).

Use the Score Reporting Code List provided to you to find the names for the schools or scholarship programs you want to send your scores to. U.S. colleges and universities are listed first in alphabetical order by state. Institutions in U.S. territories come next, followed by international ones. The final list in this booklet shows scholarship programs listed by state or country, in alphabetical order.

For each place you want to send scores to, copy the name from the list. Raise your hand if you have any questions.
